SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY

For a problem-solving approach to the material covered in this chapter, with many examples and solved problems, see:

A preclassical mercantilist view on international trade can be found in:

For Smith’s and Ricardo’s views on international trade, see:

An excellent exposition of the classical theory of comparative advantage can be found in:

For a more advanced and definitive exposition of the theory of comparative advantage, see:

For an extension of the Ricardian model to many commodities, see:

For empirical tests of the Ricardian trade model, see:

INTERNet

For trade policies of all the member countries of the World Trade Organization, see:

http://www.wto.org

For information and description of new reports and analyses on international trade theory and policies, generally supporting a liberal trading system, published by the Institute for International Economics, see:

http://www.iie.com

The case against free trade is made by the Public Citizen Global Trade Watch, an organization created by Ralph Nader (the consumer advocate), which is found at:

http://www.citizen.org/trade